Multi-choice questions

Question 1

The team providing care for the individual may include:

- A. physiotherapists
- B. dieticians
- C. both

Question 2

End of life care must be sensitive to:

- A. personal, cultural and spiritual values
- B. beliefs and practices
- C. both

Question 3

Taking a holistic approach to caring means:

- A. dealing with the physical symptoms
- B. trying to meet social, physical, psychological and spiritual needs
- C. providing a stimulating environment
Question 4

Which of the following factors will impact on an individual’s needs and preferences?

- A. social or cultural
- B. physical
- C. both

Question 5

Which of the following legislation is applicable to working with people at the end of life stage?

- A. The Human Rights Act
- B. The Mental Capacity Act
- C. both

Question 6

A care pathway is:

- A. a list of care services available in the area
- B. a plan covering all aspects of care an individual may need
- C. an individual’s medical records
Question 7

The Gold Standard Framework aims to improve palliative care by:

- A. providing high quality continuing care
- B. ensuring that people work as a team to support the individual
- C. both

Question 8

The Preferred Priorities for Care document outlines:

- A. the individual’s choices of care, and where they wish to die
- B. the care worker’s preferences
- C. the family and friends’ wishes

Question 9

An Advance Decision sets out:

- A. treatment that the individual wishes to refuse
- B. specifies treatment they would like to receive
- C. specifies where the individual wishes to receive care
Question 10

End of Life care should mean that the individual can expect:

- A. personal needs and preferences to be discussed and accommodated wherever possible
- B. to receive care which reflects dignity and respect
- C. both
Open Questions

Question 1

What do you understand by a Care Pathway?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Question 2

What is the Gold Standards Framework?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Question 3

Describe what you understand by Preferred Priorities for Care

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Question 4

Which Act provides for making an Advance Decision? Explain briefly the advantages of making such a decision.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Question 5

Why are spiritual and cultural needs so important for someone in the end stage of life?
Has the learner passed? yes/no

Learners name..................................................

Trainers name..................................................

Date.................................................................